LOVE NOW MEDIA

ABOUT

Love Now Media is an empathy-centered multi-platform storytelling enterprise. We amplify acts of love at the intersection of social justice, wellness, and equity through video, digital, audio, print and live events. Founded in 2016, the company pushes innovation through its agility and responsiveness to public inquiries and concerns.

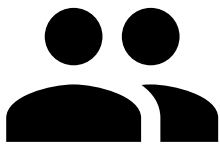

We achieve our work through:

- Love Now Magazine (Print)
- Multimedia Journalism & News (Digital)
- Community Listening & Engagement
- Arts presentation & curation
- Educational workshops
- Live events

DEFINING LOVE

When talking about "love," we define the love in our work as community love (philia love). We value romantic love (eros love) but in the context of service to a larger community or a mission.
